

Rev. Diana Anika Worthy

Diana Worthy aka Rev. Anika Sala is a native of Detroit, Michigan. She is a graduate of the Detroit Public School system and attended Wayne County Community College and Wayne State University in Detroit. Anika joined the Pan African Orthodox Christian Church in 1972. She has faithfully served our church community for 42 years. As a full time missionary she began her service in the church's national Administrative Office and worked on Community Outreach programs. In 1975 Anika transferred to Atlanta Georgia as a full time missionary and member of the first Expansion Cadre assigned to Shrine #9. In Atlanta she served in the Regional Office, as a group leader and as the Shrine #9 Kitchen Coordinator. Her infectious personality and welcoming spirit soon made her the face of the Culture Center. In 1986 Anika became a member of the Houston Shrine #10 Expansion Cadre. She has faithfully served as Office Manager, Group Leader, Youth Worker and most famously the Manager of the Shrine Cultural and Event Center. Where ever she goes throughout the city of Houston she meets and greets someone who knows and identifies her with our church and the Cultural Center. She has been a faithful and steadfast servant of God for many years and is an asset to our community and our people.
